

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 11, 2011

Amber Embrey
Marketing Coordinator
aembrey@fbei.net
812-492-8216

FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS BANK RECEIVES RECOGNITION FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE

EVANSVILLE, IN – First Federal Savings Bank has received a 2011 American Bankers Association, ABA, Community Bank Award for outstanding service to our community. The ABA, Community Bank Awards honor institutions like First Federal Savings Bank, that have taken an innovative, creative and effective approach to make a difference in their communities.

This ABA, Community Bank Award was achieved through our continuous efforts with Habitat for Humanity of Evansville. Through committed leadership by management and employees First Federal Savings Bank has been influential in the success of Habitat for Humanity of Evansville since 1994.

In 2009 First Federal secured $285,000 in funding through the Affordable Housing Program through the Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis for the construction of 19 homes in the Glenwood community. First Federal does more than contribute monetary donations we provide volunteers on job sites, serve on committees and the board of directors.

Awards recipients will be mentioned at the ABA's National Conference for Community Bankers, which will take place February 20-23 in San Diego, CA.

About American Bankers Association

Founded in 1875, the American Bankers Association represents banks of all sizes and charters and is the voice for the nation's $13 trillion banking industry and its 2 million employees.

About First Federal Savings Bank

First Federal Savings Bank was established on Evansville, Indiana's Westside in 1904. First Federal is a community bank currently serving the residents of Southwest Indiana with seven branch offices located throughout Posey, Vanderburgh, and Warrick Counties.